

Cambridge

- C1 Cambridge Centre for the Arts
60 Dickson Street
- C2 Cambridge City Hall
50 Dickson Street
- C3 Design at Riverside
School of Architecture, University of Waterloo
7 Melville Street South
- C4 Rare Charitable Research Reserve
1679 Blair Road

C1 Cambridge Centre for the Arts

60 Dickson Street

WORD! UP! BILL ASHWELL

Construct your own haikus, limericks and sonnets or collaborate on a giant collective poem. Play with hundreds of magnetic word tiles as the building blocks for poetic inspiration.

Sat: 10 am–6 pm ALL AGES

Art Blast CAMBRIDGE CENTRE FOR THE ARTS

Make funky pinwheels, Matisse-inspired masks and brightly coloured flower collages with local artists Freya Roach, April Tremblay and Lindsay Pickering.

Sat: 12 pm–3 pm CHILDREN

Magnificent African Masks CAMBRIDGE CENTRE FOR THE ARTS

A mask is a character with its own tale to tell. Nii Addico discusses the engaging history and spiritual traditions of African masks and demonstrates carving techniques.

Sat: 12 pm–3 pm ALL AGES

Sound-Sketch CAMBRIDGE CENTRE FOR THE ARTS

Transform sound into images with artists Laurie Wonfor Nolan and Dan Roberts. Experiment with painting and drawing exercises while the Cambridge Community Orchestra plays a selection of inspiring pieces.

Sat: 12 pm–3 pm ALL AGES

C2 Cambridge City Hall

50 Dickson Street

Instrument Petting Zoo BEYOND THE CLEF MUSIC SCHOOL

Take a walk through the instrument zoo. Experiment on your own or have a qualified music teacher explain proper techniques. Participants will also be invited to make a musical craft.

Sat: 10 am–7 pm ALL AGES

Installation Inspiration CAMBRIDGE ARTS FESTIVAL

What is installation art, anyway? Artists Dave DiBenedetto, Brad Paddock, Ann Marie Hadcock and Murray Bastian create installations with wood, metal and plastics. What kinds of shapes and structures can you build with the same materials?

Sat: 10 am–10 pm ALL AGES

Cut It Out! EAN KOOLS

Produce graphically powerful images with stencils. Street artist Ean Kools creates a large aerosol painting with the help of your paper cut-out patterns or shapes.

Sat: 10 am–6 pm ALL AGES

Everybody's Marilyn DAVID POPFLOW

Put on Marilyn Monroe's sexy white dress, a blond wig and fake mole to recreate the subway-grate scene from The Seven Year Itch for the cameras. The paparazzi will love you!

Sat: 11 am–3 pm, 5 pm–8:30 pm ALL AGES

Other Events

Unlikely Concerts: #17–21 CAMBRIDGE GALLERIES

Tiny Bill Cody, the alter-ego of Tor Lukasik-Foss, is a yodelling cowboy who wanders the city creating site-specific songs. His rollicking performances will occur hourly, starting each day in the Cambridge Galleries lobby then moving on to downtown venues and local bus routes.

Watch for Tiny Bill in downtown Cambridge, or visit www.spotlightfestival.ca for specific times and locations.
Fri: 5 pm–9 pm Sat: 12 pm–4 pm ALL AGES

C3 Watercolour Monotypes

CAMBRIDGE GALLERIES AND RIVERSIDE PRINT GROUP

Fashion spontaneous and surprising images using watercolour and gum arabic, then watch veteran printmakers transform your work through the print process.

Design at Riverside
School of Architecture, University of Waterloo
7 Melville Street South
Sat: 11 am–3 pm ALL AGES

Nuptial Rendezvous TRACEY ECCLESTON

A bride and groom wander the city, desperately looking for their elusive church. Who will help them find their way?

Watch for them in downtown Cambridge!
Sat: 10 am–12 pm ALL AGES

C4 Feel Like a Morning Star: Storytelling in the Family

TONGUES WAGGING PRODUCTIONS

Storytellers tell playful and interactive folk tales and stories. Parents get tips on making storytime at home more fun.

Registration is required; call 519-623-2456.
Rare Charitable Research Reserve, 1679 Blair Road
Sun: 3 pm–5 pm ALL AGES

Cambridge Centre for the Arts
Photo: Daphnée Nostrome

Cambridge Galleries
Photo: Ivan Jurakic